Agnieszka Lasota graduated from the interior architecture class at the Warsaw Akademy of Fine Arts, and advanced studies for architecture of Interiors at the Instituto Europeo di Design in Milan, Italy.

From the graduation on she works as interior architect .

Besides work as architect she was for 6 years editor for interior decoration at the lifestyle monthly magazine Twoj Styl.

From 1999 on she was invited by the TV channel Fashion TV International to design the interiors of the Fashion Bar- a chain in many countries around the world.

She is the author of interiors of restaurants, hotels and shops in Poland, and Italy.

Author of unique furniture and works from the border of conceptual art and design.

Lately she is experimenting in her creativity with the “work with process”.